

New Year's Greetings

Esteemed Friend:

We greet you!

We wish you a very happy, prosperous New Year.

Above all else we wish you Health.

We realize that during the past year you have given us your friendship and support to a remarkable degree. We thank you very kindly for it.

We resolve to do everything in our power to warrant a continuance of your friendship. We want your patronage, because through that patronage we can assure ourselves success, and if through the resolution of giving you the best of drug store products and treating you in a friendly and courteous way we can completely satisfy you, our success will be assured in 1916 through the care we have exercised in retaining this patronage.

Again we wish you a very happy and prosperous New Year with the greatest degree of perfect health added.

Yours very truly,

H. J. BROWNSON

'Thunder at Sea.

The Astronomical Society of France has again taken up the discussion which has been before it on several previous occasions, and that is the statement that thunder is never heard at sea. The statement was originally attributed to Baron von Humboldt, and it has been frequently questioned, but those who insist that they have heard thunder at sea have also stated that the peals were not so loud as on land. A large number of seamen have been found to agree with the scientist, although it is suggested that the other noises prevailing on shipboard during a storm may be the reason why the thunder often passes unnoticed.

Surnames.

Surnames grew out of descriptive appellations, and the date at which they originated varied, according to the locality and the person's walk of life. In the south of Europe we first find them at the beginning of the twelfth century. In the northern countries they were not universal at the end of the fourteenth, and in remote parts of Wales in the mining districts and in the slums of Glasgow they are still unknown. They were first used by the barons and franklins, then by the tradesmen and artisans, and lastly by the laborers.

Only Imaginary.

How true it is that most of our troubles are purely imaginary. For instance, we can read what one of these newspaper-syndicate doctors says and be right on the verge of coming down with double pneumonia or complete nervous breakdown or what ever he happens to mention on the particular day, but after a good night's sleep we always find that if it weren't for chilblains and pyorrhea we shouldn't have any trouble at all.—Columbus (O.) Journal.

Baffling Crackman, Raffles, Sugg's Vaudeville Feature

RAFFLES.

Who Demonstrates How Easy It is to Open "Burglar-Proof" Safes.

The original Raffles, the most mysterious man in the world, who has puzzled New York, astounded Chicago and surprised San Francisco, and who has been the talk of leading newspapers from coast to coast, will be the headline attraction today and Saturday at Sugg theatre.

The character "Raffles" originated with E. W. Hornung's famous novel of fiction, "Raffles," the amateur crack-man. So several years ago when a mysterious and sensational young man appeared in vaudeville, he was immediately dubbed by a New York critic, the "original Raffles."

"Raffles, the Amateur Crackman," was first presented in America by Kyrle Ballew and later throughout the western states by S. Miller Kent.

Rapidly progressive has been the art of the manufacturer in developing the art of the so-called burglar-proof safe, devising the most intricate com-pace with the modern manufacture.

He demonstrates the methods used by the most expert criminals of today in the opening of a combination bank vault or safe by the mere sense of touch.

"Raffles is the only man of whom Chief John E. Wilke of the United States secret service at Washington, D. C., has demanded finger prints and Bertillon measurements; not that he anticipates any criminal act on the part of "Raffles," but he required them for his personal collection.

It will be remembered that "Raffles" has, on numerous occasions, appeared on the streets of the larger cities in disguise, with hundreds of dollars in reward offered for his capture or detention. These public functions have created much notoriety.
Magazines have given him much space and newspapers many special articles.

There is no safe he cannot open, getting the combination by the sense

NOTICE—Hazards of Helen will be shown on Monday.OSCAR IS LONG ON PROMISES

Good as ever at promising, but still inclined to be secretive, J. Edwin Pool is having post-cards mailed to friends in Chickasha from Little Rock. Recent historical research, however, has established the fact that Pool may not have been near Little Rock. It seems he has managed to secure a consigna-ment of Little Rock post-card views and after writing all over these and addressing them to different parties in Chickasha, expressed the bundle to a friend in Little Rock with instructions to mail them from the postoffice.
P. S.—This "historical research" product is "supposititious."

Card received at this office shows a fine halftone of the masonic consistory at Little Rock and a post mark badly mutilated and blurred. It also "shows" the depths of man's iniquity by bearing the following on its face: "Apologies for getting away. We are feeling fine. Am going to write from Atlanta "Oscar."

"Apologies!" Now, what do you think of that? For undiluted and double distilled gail, what do you think of that?

Another of those deceptively mailed post cards, addressed to an old Chickasha side-kicker who extracted the promise that his name be not used in this connection, says: "We are 'getting by' just like 'old married' folks all O. K. and feeling fine over the manner in which we slipped one over. Get to Atlanta tomorrow, E. & A." This card bears on its reverse side a fairly good picture of a Little Rock convent.

Dr. Emanuel stated this morning he had also received a card from Pool.
The doctor would not come across with his card, but said it showed a couple of railway trains and a Little Rock depot on one side while on the other side was written a plea calculated to touch the soul of a European ruler. The plea, the doctor stated, was for his influence in the matter of having certain trunks checked and forwarded forthwith, instantler, to Pool.

As other cards come from the happy Pool the public will be advised.
